*Re: Ordinance No. 2010 – 0840 (§549.11)
Ohioans for Concealed Carry, Inc. v. City of Campbell, Ohio
Mahoning County Court of Common Pleas, Case No. 10-CV-1487*

Dear Mr. Kolmacic,

Be advised that I, along with David Kessler, Esq. of the firm of Blaugrund, Herbert & Martin, Inc., represent Ohioans for Concealed Carry, Inc.

As of Thursday, April 15, 2010, Ohioans for Concealed Carry has filed a lawsuit on behalf of its members against the City of Campbell for failing to repeal ordinance 2001-0840. (See attached). My client has instructed me to pursue any and all available remedies to include a motion seeking a preliminary injunction. To avoid the cost and time associated with this, I am requesting that your client agree not to enforce this ordinance until the civil action is resolved. If your client agrees, and immediately publishes notice of this agreement in a manner designed to inform the public, a preliminary injunction will not be necessary.

If you have any questions please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

Derek DeBrosse, Esq.
